RE: Attorney Referral/Review and consideration of management, audio-visual production and global transmission of intellectual properties.

Dear Sir or Madam:

My law firm represents Chuck Foster in his entertainment industry related matters. At his request, and as an entertainment law attorney, I am writing this letter of referral regarding Chuck Foster, TFP Entertainment, Pamela Jane Nye, Operation Scrubs, Inc., and the intellectual properties identified separately and collectively as Komedu Punchout™ and World Champion of Comedy® (The intellectual properties are hereinafter collectively referred to as "Properties").

This referral letter pertains to the potential management, audio/video production, and global transmission and exploitation in all media, including radio, television, broadcast, cable, satellite, internet streaming, etc.) of the Properties

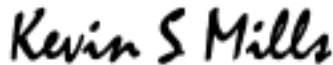

The Properties are protected by copyright and are currently registered with the Writer's Guild of America (West). World Champion of Comedy® is a registered trademarked property with the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO).

I am aware of and familiar with these Properties, which are further described within the <https://worldchampionofcomedy.com> website.

This letter is solely intended to comply with circumstances or policies requiring a referral letter from a licensed agent or entertainment attorney before these Properties can be received and reviewed.

You are invited to contact me with any questions or concerns.

Sincerely,

Kevin Mills
Kaye & Mills
